

SEPT 13: Consecrated Firstborn-Exodus 13:1-22

Supporting Scriptures: Proverbs 3:5-6; Psalm 32:8; John 10:27

1. God claimed the firstborn as holy to Himself. What does this teach us about gratitude, worship, and recognizing that everything we have belongs to God?
2. The Israelites carried the memory of God's deliverance wherever they went. How can we intentionally remember God's faithfulness in our own lives?
3. God led Israel by the pillar of cloud and fire rather than giving them a complete map. Why do you think God often reveals His guidance one step at a time instead of all at once?
4. Proverbs 3 calls us to trust God rather than lean on our own understanding. When have you found it difficult to surrender your plans to the Lord?
5. Jesus says, "My sheep hear My voice." How do we learn to recognize God's guidance through His Word rather than through our own feelings or circumstances?
6. Looking ahead, is there an area of your life that God may be asking you to dedicate more fully to Him? What would that look like in practice?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. Why did God ask His people to remember how He rescued them?
2. How did God lead the Israelites during the day and at night?
3. How does God lead us today?
4. What is one way you can show God that you love and trust Him?

SEPT 20: Trapped to Delivered-Exodus 14:1-31

Supporting Scriptures: Psalm 46:1-3; Romans 8:31-39; 2 Chronicles 20:15-17

1. The Israelites felt trapped between Pharaoh's army and the Red Sea. Have you ever faced a situation where there seemed to be no way forward? How did God work through it?
2. Moses told the people, "The Lord will fight for you; you need only to be still." What does faithful trust look like when we cannot immediately solve our problems?
3. Romans 8 reminds us that nothing can separate us from God's love. How does this promise strengthen us during seasons of fear or uncertainty?
4. In 2 Chronicles, God says, "The battle is not yours, but God's." When should Christians act courageously, and when should we simply wait on God's timing?
5. Fear often causes people to forget God's past faithfulness. What practices help you remember what God has already done in your life?
6. Looking back, can you identify a time when what seemed like a dead end became an opportunity for God to display His power?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. Why were the Israelites afraid?
2. What did God do to rescue His people?
3. What should we remember when we feel scared?
4. How can you trust God when something seems hard?

SEPT 27: Sing to the Lord-Exodus 15:1-21

Supporting Scriptures: Psalm 98:1-3; Colossians 3:16-17; Revelation 15:2-4

1. Why was Israel's first response after crossing the Red Sea a song of praise instead of simply moving on with life?
2. Psalm 98 calls us to "sing a new song." How does worship help us remember God's saving work and strengthen our faith?
3. Colossians teaches that psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs allow God's Word to dwell richly among believers. Why is singing an important part of Christian worship?
4. Miriam led others in joyful praise. How can our gratitude and worship encourage the faith of those around us?
5. Revelation pictures God's people still singing about His victory. What does this tell us about the eternal significance of worship?
6. What are some ways you can intentionally thank and praise God—not only in church, but throughout the week?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. Why did Moses and the people sing to God?
2. What are some reasons we can thank God today?
3. What is your favorite song about Jesus or God's love?
4. How can singing help us remember what God has done?

OCT 4: Bitter to Sweet-Exodus 15:22-27

Supporting Scriptures: Romans 8:28; James 1:2-4; Psalm 34:8

1. Only a few days after celebrating God's victory, the Israelites began complaining. Why do people so quickly forget God's blessings when difficulties arise?
2. God transformed the bitter water into sweet water. What does this miracle teach us about His ability to redeem painful experiences?
3. James teaches that trials produce perseverance. How have hardships helped strengthen your faith or character?
4. Romans 8 says God works all things together for good for those who love Him. What is the difference between believing that everything is good and believing God can bring good out of everything?
5. Psalm 34 invites us to "taste and see that the Lord is good." How have you personally experienced God's goodness during a difficult season?
6. When bitterness begins to grow in our hearts, what practical steps can help us return to trusting God?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. Why were the people unhappy at the water?
2. What did God do to help them?
3. What should we do when we have a problem?
4. Can you think of a time when God helped you or your family?

OCT 11: Bread from Heaven–Exodus 16:1–36

Supporting Scriptures: Matthew 6:9–11; John 6:32–35; Philippians 4:19

1. The Israelites grumbled even after seeing God’s mighty acts. Why is it often easier to focus on what we lack than on what God has already provided?
2. God gave only enough manna for each day (except before the Sabbath). What do you think He was teaching His people about trust and dependence?
3. Jesus taught us to pray, “Give us this day our daily bread.” How does that prayer challenge our desire for security, control, or abundance?
4. Jesus called Himself the Bread of Life. How is our need for Christ greater than our need for physical food?
5. Philippians 4:19 promises that God will supply every need. How do we distinguish between our needs and our wants?
6. Looking back over your life, when has God provided exactly what you needed—even if it wasn’t what you expected?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. What food did God give the Israelites in the wilderness?
2. Why did God give them food every day?
3. What does Jesus mean when He says He is the Bread of Life?
4. What is one thing you can thank God for providing today?

OCT 18: Water from a Rock-Exodus 17:1-7

Supporting Scriptures: 1 Corinthians 10:1-4; Isaiah 55:1-3; John 4:13-14

1. Why did the Israelites question whether God was really with them after everything they had already experienced?
2. Paul says that the rock pointed to Christ. In what ways does Jesus provide what our hearts truly need?
3. Jesus offers “living water” that satisfies forever. What kinds of things do people often pursue that leave them spiritually thirsty?
4. Isaiah invites everyone who thirsts to come freely to God. Why do people sometimes hesitate to receive God’s grace as a free gift?
5. What habits help keep your spiritual life refreshed instead of spiritually dry?
6. How could God use your own experiences of His faithfulness to encourage someone who is struggling to trust Him?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. Why were the people thirsty?
2. How did God give them water?
3. What is the “living water” Jesus gives us?
4. How can you remember to trust God when you need help?

OCT 25: The Battle Belongs to the Lord-Exodus 17:8-16

Supporting Scriptures: Ephesians 6:10-18; Hebrews 12:1-3; 1 Samuel 17:45-47

1. Israel won the battle as Moses lifted his hands before the Lord. What does this teach us about the relationship between prayer and faithful action?
2. Moses needed Aaron and Hur to support him. Why is it important that Christians allow others to strengthen and encourage them during difficult times?
3. Ephesians describes the Christian life as a spiritual battle. What are some of the greatest spiritual battles believers face today?
4. David declared, "The battle belongs to the Lord." How can confidence in God's power help us face fear, temptation, or opposition?
5. Hebrews encourages us to keep our eyes on Jesus. How does focusing on Christ change the way we approach life's struggles?
6. Who has helped strengthen your faith during a difficult season? How can you become that kind of encouragement for someone else?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. Who helped Moses when he became tired?
2. Who helped Israel win the battle?
3. Why should we pray when we face hard things?
4. How can you encourage a friend who is struggling?

NOV 1: Wise Leadership–Exodus 18:1–27

Supporting Scriptures: Acts 6:1–7; 1 Corinthians 12:4–27; Ephesians 4:11–13

1. Jethro recognized that Moses could not lead alone. Why is it sometimes difficult for leaders to ask for help or delegate responsibility?
2. What qualities did Jethro recommend for those chosen to lead? Which of those qualities do you think are most needed in Christian leaders today?
3. Acts 6 shows the early Church sharing leadership responsibilities. What similarities do you see between Moses' situation and the apostles'?
4. First Corinthians teaches that every believer has different gifts. How does recognizing those differences strengthen the Church?
5. According to Ephesians 4, church leaders are called to equip others for ministry—not do all the ministry themselves. How does this reshape our understanding of leadership?
6. In what area of ministry or service might God be calling you to use your gifts for the benefit of others?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. Why did Moses need helpers?
2. Has someone ever helped you do something difficult?
3. What gifts has God given you to help other people?
4. How can you help your family, church, or school this week?

NOV 8: A Kingdom of Priests–Exodus 19:1–15

Supporting Scriptures: 1 Peter 2:9–10; Galatians 3:26–29; Ephesians 2:8–10

1. God called Israel to be “a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.” What do you think it means for God’s people to represent Him to the world?
2. Peter applies this same language to the Church. How does knowing that you are part of God’s “royal priesthood” shape the way you live each day?
3. Ephesians teaches that we are saved by grace, not by works, yet we are created for good works. How do grace and obedience work together in the Christian life?
4. Galatians says that all who are in Christ are heirs of God’s promises. How should this identity affect the way we see ourselves and other believers?
5. Priests helped people draw near to God. While Christ is our Great High Priest, how can Christians today help point others to Him?
6. What opportunities has God given you to reflect His holiness and love in your home, workplace, school, or community?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. What did God want His people to be for the nations?
2. What does it mean to belong to God’s family?
3. How can you show other people what Jesus is like?
4. What is one good thing you can do this week to honor God?

NOV 15: Meeting a Holy God—Exodus 19:16–25

Supporting Scriptures: Hebrews 12:18–24; Isaiah 6:1–8; 1 Peter 1:13–16

1. Why did God's presence at Mount Sinai inspire such awe and reverence among the Israelites?
2. Isaiah responded to God's holiness by confessing his sin. Why is recognizing God's holiness closely connected to recognizing our own need for forgiveness?
3. Hebrews contrasts Mount Sinai with Mount Zion, where believers come through Jesus. What privileges do Christians enjoy because of Christ's sacrifice?
4. Peter tells believers, "Be holy, because I am holy." What does holiness look like in everyday relationships, decisions, and priorities?
5. Modern culture often emphasizes God's love while overlooking His holiness. Why is it important to hold both truths together?
6. How can worship help us grow in both reverence for God and confidence in His grace through Jesus?

Kid-Friendly Questions:

1. What happened when God came to Mount Sinai?
2. Why is God different from everyone else?
3. Why do we respect and worship God?
4. How does Jesus help us come close to God?
